2. Schedule of Payments

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(f)(2), in consideration of the financial resources and other assets of the Defendant, including whether any of these assets are jointly controlled; projected earnings and other income of the Defendant; and any financial obligations of the Defendant; including obligations to dependents, the Defendant shall pay restitution in the manner and according to the schedule that follows:

While serving a term of imprisonment, the Defendant shall make installment payments toward his restitution obligation, and may do so through the Bureau of Prisons' ("BOP") Inmate Financial Responsibility Plan ("IFRP"). Pursuant to BOP policy, the BOP may establish a payment plan by evaluating the Defendant's six-month deposit history and subtracting an amount determined by the BOP to be used to maintain contact with family and friends. The remaining balance may be used to determine a repayment schedule. BOP staff shall help the Defendant develop a financial plan and shall monitor the inmate's progress in meeting his restitution obligation. Any unpaid amount remaining upon release from prison will be paid in installments of not less than an amount equal to 10 percent of the Defendant's net (post-tax) income on the first day of each month.

If the Defendant defaults on the payment schedule set forth above, the Government may pursue other remedies to enforce the judgment.

The defendant shall pay interest on any restitution amount of more than $2,500.00, unless restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of the judgment, in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(1).
